Tournament Rules

Event Consolidation for Competitors

The tournament committee reserves the right to consolidate age and/or rank divisions in any tournament event as it deems necessary. Unless otherwise listed, Males and Females competing in individual events will be separated in all rank divisions except as follows:

Individual Kata/Kumite where there is only a single competitor, Males and Females will be combined for all ranks in kata, and for all ranks below Brown Belt in kumite: Males and Females will not be combined for kumite in the Brown and Black Belt divisions. Competitors may be moved up or down in age group depending on the number of competitors in the age division.

Team Kata:

There will be no Team Kata events for this particular Shiai.

Three Competitors Rule for Kumite events;

In the case where there are only three competitors in an event, there will be no automatic bye. The loser of the first match will compete against the next competitor. If the loser of the first match wins the second match, that competitor will automatically finish second, and the winner of the first match will automatically finish first. If the loser of the first match loses the second match, that competitor will finish third, and the winner of the second match will compete with the winner of first match for first and second place.

Tiebreak Rule for Jiyu Kumite

If there is a draw, another match will be held. This re-match is called Sai-Shiai. If this re-match ends up in a draw, a second re-match called Sai-Sai Shiai will be held as a “sudden death” match meaning that the competitor that scores first is declared the winner. In the event there is no score after a second re-match, the judges will determine a winner.

Criteria leading to Disqualification (Hansoku)

1. The following elements are forbidden:
  - a) Excessive contact, going beyond the target, “wild” swinging techniques.
  - b) Performing or intent to perform dangerous throws.
  - c) Grabbing, holding on, or wasting time by not attacking.
  - d) Using provocative language, attitude, gestures, verbal taunting, or not following the orders of a Judge.
  - e) Continuing to attack after stop (Yame) or out of bounds (Jogai) is called.
  - f) Head butt attack or intent to use head butt attack.
  - g) Spear hand or Nukite attack to the eyes.
  - h) Purposely attacking the groin area or the joints.

Guidelines for Kihon-Ippon Kumite

Attacking Techniques

1. Punch to the face or Jodan Oi-Zuki: aiming for either just below the nose, or lower part of the chin.
2. Punch to the stomach or Chudan Oi-Zuki: aiming for the solar plexus.
3. Front kick to the stomach or Chudan Mae-Geri: using the back leg, aiming for the solar plexus.

NOTE: The above techniques are done with the right hand and the right foot. If there is a draw, the above techniques are repeated but with the left hand and the left foot.

4. There must be appropriate distance to attack. The attacking competitor steps the leg back and forms a downward block or Gedan-Barai. Each attack must be clearly announced before execution.

NOTE: For the execution of the front kick or Mae-Geri, both arms are extended to the side of the body.

5. After the completion of an attack and defense sequence, both competitors simultaneously return to the natural position or Shinzentai. The attacking competitor takes a step back to return to the natural position while the defending competitors takes a step forward to do the same.

Defensive Techniques

1. Any kind of blocking techniques and body shifting can be used.
2. Any kind of counterattack to the target areas can be used but only a single counterattack is allowed.

Additional points.

1. An attack or defense technique can only be used once.
2. There is to be one sudden vocal release of energy or Kiai per attack and per counterattack.

Prohibited Elements (Attack) for Kihon Ippon Kumite

1. Faking a movement in order to have the opponent move, and then attacking that opponent.
2. Lunging the body towards the opponent or taking more than one basic step forward to attack.
3. From the natural position or Shizentai, the attack must follow a straight line forward and not follow the opponent who may have moved prior to completion of the attack. The foot of the attacking competitor that has stepped forward should end up positioned between the opponents' legs. Fundamental basic technique must be applied during the execution.
4. Face level and stomach level attacks that are executed with forceful motions such as pressing the arm downward while the opponent is executing a blocking technique.
5. Withdrawing the hand that is executing an attack too quickly

Prohibited Elements (Defense)

1. Contact or hitting the attacking competitor other than the blocking technique that should be executed.
2. Any combination technique: sweeping the attacking competitor, any throwing techniques or holds involving the joints.
3. During the execution of a blocking technique to the stomach, to block at the other competitors elbow. Proper blocking is done at the wrist of the attacking competitor.
4. During the execution of a blocking technique to the face, any forceful motions that may cause a loss of balance of the attacking competitor.
5. During execution of a blocking technique to the stomach, use of any forceful downward motions.
6. Withdrawing the hand that is executing a counterattack too quickly.

Additional points.

1. An attack or defensive technique can only be used once.
2. There is to be one sudden vocal release of energy or Kiai per attack and per counterattack.
3. When there is proper distance or Maai to attack, the competitor must initiate that attack. It has been seen that proper distance or Maai has been reached and no attack is initiated. This must not be done.
4. The defending competitor must not back away creating a longer distance from the attacking competitor.
5. Faking a movement or Kensei is not allowed.

Prohibited Elements (Attack)

1. Distance is too short, and lunging the body towards the opponent.
2. Withdrawing the hand too quickly that is executing an attack.
3. Contact or hitting the opponent.
4. Blocking or shifting the body during the counterattack.
5. Grabbing or holding the opponent.

Prohibited Elements (Defense)

1. Stepping out of the ring three times. A caution or Keikoku is given for the first time, a warning or Chui is given for the second time and a disqualification or Hansoku is give for the third time.
2. Blocking and counter attacking at the same time.
